Description

Dunkeld Scotland is the home of the Beatrix Potter Garden. Beatrix Potter is the highly acclaimed author of such stories as Peter Rabbit, Benjamin Bunny and Tom Kitten. She also illustrated all of her books and characters. I was captivated by these stories and books as a child. This lot on Dunkeld holds alot of the magic that Potter did. Verdant, lush, and a short walk away from Loch Lomond. It is the perfect site to build your own country cottage as seen in Peter Rabbit. A big porch with a swing, darling little shutters, red brick and raised garden beds for all your gardening. Your whimsy and vision might even bring these characters to real life in your own yard. Buy this lot, build this cottage and hope that you don't have a Mr. McGregor hunting all your rabbits. Don't worry about him, make this story your reality.
