Description

Escape to your own homestead in the Ozark Mountains. This fully renovated 1920 farmhouse blends rustic charm and modern comforts. Inside, find pine-lined vaulted ceilings, a river rock wood-burning fireplace, and a kitchen with granite countertops, a large island, dual sinks, and a gas range. The upstairs bedroom features a travertine walk-in shower and overlooks rolling pastures. Enjoy spacious covered porches in both the front and back for relaxing or entertaining. The property includes a workshop, root cellar, mature fruit trees (peach, pear, persimmon), a small pond, live stock pens, a classic red barn with electric, a chicken coop, and raised garden beds with a large garden area to grow your own produce. The original stone siding, well, and barn preserve its timeless appeal. 5 minutes to I49, 20 minutes to Fayetteville, 30 minutes to Alma, and 45 minutes to Bentonville, this is your perfect countryside retreat with city convenience. *Back on market due to previous buyers' inability
