Description

Nice level 12.08 acre building site for your new home! Land has been cleared for a home-site where a 314 foot deep well (drilled in 2008) is located. Well has 127 feet of casing and produces 60 gallons/min. There is currently no pump on the well. Static water level was 120 ft. The well head is sticking up about a foot and is painted white--about 50 feet from the road. Perc test site is located in that general area. Lot located about a mile from an input on the Bull Shoals Lake.
