Description

This property is for Deer Hunters, make that serious deer hunters who understand that location is very important. Sometimes smaller acreage properties are located right in the perfect spot, and this is one of those properties. Thick brushy timbered ravines meander through green cattle pastures connecting larger chunks of timber. A creek bottom is located at the bottom of the ravine. A nice food plot and pond with great views overlooking the hills to the south. Let the pictures from this past season tell you the story
