Description

16 acres located in Elk Country of beautiful Newton County, Arkansas. This prime tract is located in the heart of the Ozark National Forest, Bear Cat Hollow WMA, Gene Rush WMA and Richland Creek Wilderness Area are just down the road. This region is managed for the state's growing elk herd, offering a rare opportunity for landowners to apply for private land elk tags. The area is also well known for exceptional hunting opportunities with abundant black bear, trophy whitetail deer, and wild hog populations. Outdoor recreation opportunities are endless with both Richland Creek and the famous Buffalo National River just a short side-by-side ride away. The property features historic old rock walls along or near the boundary lines, adding character and a glimpse into the area's early settlement history. Several excellent building sites offer beautiful mountain views.
