Description

Located just off Scenic Byway 7 in the heart of the Ozarks, this 37.11-acre tract offers a rare combination of privacy, views, and direct access to nature. Bordering the Ozark National Forest on two sides, this property provides unmatched seclusion with endless opportunities for hiking, hunting, and exploring right out your back door. Two full RV sites and a 1,200 sq ft metal building sits on the property, thoughtfully designed with 600 sq ft of finished living space that includes 1 bedroom and 1 bathroom—perfect for comfortable living while you enjoy everything the land has to offer. The remaining space offers ample room for storage, a workshop, or future expansion. Located just minutes from Jasper and the Buffalo National River, this property combines convenience with the peace and beauty of the Ozarks. Whether you're looking for a private escape or a basecamp for adventure, this one checks all the boxes.
