Description

This one reads like a quiet upgrade disguised as a rental. Freshly updated, this home features two fully remodeled bathrooms with clean, modern finishes and lighting that make everyday routines feel refined. Inside, you'll find a partially furnished interior, giving you a head start on comfort without sacrificing the freedom to make it your own. The layout flows effortlessly into a four-season room—a versatile space that works year-round, whether it becomes your morning coffee retreat, a light-filled office, or a cozy hangout when the weather can't make up its mind. Step outside and you'll appreciate the large, flat lot, offering plenty of usable space for relaxing, entertaining, or simply enjoying a little breathing room—something that's hard to come by. All of this sits in a highly desirable location, close to the Blowing Springs Trail, Metfield Clubhouse, Cooper Elementary, and the new OZ Trails Bike park and so much more! A rental that doesn't feel temporary—it feels like somewhere you can actually settle in.
